

Contents

Foreword	1	Day, Night and Sunday Schools	64
The Millennium History	3	The Thirty-Nine Teachers	64
A Millennium of Village History	3	Ashwell's School	65
Contributors	5	Through Two Wars to Closure	70
Finmere and Little Tingewick	7	The Closure of the School	71
The Meaning of Finmere and Tingewick	8	A Unique and Boldly Revolutionary School	73
The Village in the Nineteenth Century	9	The New School	73
Palmer's Finmere	9	The Pleasure of School Life	75
The 1851 Census	12	The Village Landscape	79
Palmer's Later Years	13	The Village Pond	79
St Michael's Church	15	The Commemorative Trees	79
Palmer's Legacy	15	The Village Streets	82
Frederick Walker's Rebuilding	16	Villagers and Their Houses	83
Seymour Ashwell's Woodcarving	18	Houses of Rubble and Thatch	83
After Ashwell	20	Twentieth Century Developments	83
Church Attendance	22	Village Views	84
The Churchyard	24	Larger Houses	88
Catholics and Nonconformists	25	Finmere House	91
The Rectories	27	Origins	91
Seymour Ashwell's' Rectory	27	John Pollard	92
The Modern Rectory	28	The Clark Brothers	93
The Parish Land	29	The Symes-Thompsons	94
The Landowners and their Farms	31	The Flowers	95
Finmere Quarry	35	After the Flowers	95
The Roads and Railways	37	The Public Houses	97
The Stowe Road	37	The Kings Head	97
The Buckinghamshire Railway	38	The Red Lion	100
The Great Central Railway	40	Finmere at Work	103
The Bypass	42	Working the Land	103
A Well Regulated Parish	45	Trades and Crafts	104
The Vestry	45	Lacemaking and Service	105
The Parish Meetings and Council	45	Shops, Garages and Markets	106
Poor Relief	46	In Hall and Field	111
Charities for the Poor	48	Finmere's Red Letter Day: The Firsr Village Hall	111
Health and Medicine	53	A Prize Winning New Village Hall	113
Crime and Policing	56	The Playing Fields	114
Water and Waste	59	Making Our Own Entertainment	115
A Victorian Dowser	59	Finmere Feast	116
The Village Pumps	61	Garlands at May Day	117
My Poor People, They Be Well Instructed	63	Celebrating Royal Coronations	119
The School	63	A Golden Wedding	120

Sports and Shows	123
Finmere Sports Club	123
The Finmere Show	125
The Horticultural Show	126
Guides and Scouts	127
Finmere Brownies	127
Finmere Guides	128
Fox Rangers	128
Finmere Cubs	128
The Women's Institute	129
The WI Pancake Race	130
Finmere During the Second World War	131
The Evacuees from Edmonton	131
Memories of a Village at War	132
RAF Finmere	135
RAF Finmere at Play	138
Their Name Liveth for Evermore	141
The War Memorial	141
First World War Commemorations	142
Second World War Commemorations	143
Finmere at the Millennium	145
Notes and Sources	147
Index	153